SRE (Special Religious Education) in Christian Faith

When is it?: Christian SRE is offered to year 7 and 8 students. One lesson a fortnight is timetabled for each class group, although the timetable varies. The Tuesday afternoon class is open to all students in year 7 to 12 (see below).

What's involved?: In SRE lessons we read sections from the Bible, we discuss issues that arise and consider the possible implications for our own lives. Lessons include comprehension activities, time for discussion and questions, and prayer for student concerns.

Why come?: SRE offers the opportunity to develop spiritual values, a personal belief system, motivation and life purpose, and knowledge of God and the Bible. Students who attend will tackle the big questions of life: Who am I? Why am I here? Where can I find meaning and purpose in life? How can I cope with trouble? How can I build positive relationships?

Who's it for?: Girls of all faith and non faith backgrounds are welcome to participate at whatever level they feel comfortable. There is no pressure to conform to any particular belief.

Requirements: Respect for others. Respect for the learning environment. There are no assessments and workbooks are provided.
